Plant Care

Sunlight

Euphorbia Yellow thrives in bright indirect light, making it perfect for a sunny windowsill or a well-lit room.

Water

Allow the soil to dry out slightly between waterings, as overwatering can lead to root rot.

Soil

A well-draining potting mix is essential to prevent waterlogged roots and ensure the health of your plant.

Repotting

Repot every 2-3 years or when the plant outgrows its current container.

Common problems and remedies

Yellowing leaves

This can be caused by overwatering or inadequate light. Adjust your care routine accordingly.

Pest infestation

Keep an eye out for common pests such as mealybugs or spider mites and treat with insecticidal soap if necessary.

Leggy growth

If your Euphorbia Yellow becomes leggy, it may be receiving insufficient light. Move it to a brighter location to encourage bushier growth.
